

COLLEGE (SIXTH FORM) ENTRY 2012
FINAL SUBJECT CHOICES:

To: Will Lewis, Assistant Head (Curriculum Logistics), Bootham School, York. YO30 7BU

Name of Upper Senior Pupil: _____

My son's/daughter's current thinking for post-16 education in September 2012 is:

- 1 to remain at Bootham for an A + AS level programme
- 2 to move to another school/college for A levels or GNVQs
(PLEASE NOTE: completion of this form is not considered as Formal Notice of leaving)
- 3 has not made a definite decision

SUBJECT CHOICES FORM FOR BOOTHAM COLLEGE CLASS

- * Place the most important choice first, the second next and so on.
- * Please give an alternative choice for the subject you would be most prepared to alter if all your choices were not possible. It is important to have this information.

	Subject	AS	Alternative subject choice (to be written opposite the subject that you would be most prepared to alter)
1st choice
2nd choice
3rd choice
4th choice

In order to access A-levels at Bootham, students will usually have at least seven GCSE grades A to C (including passes in English and Mathematics). Some A-level subjects will require particular subject passes at B grade or higher; it is therefore crucial to consult individual course descriptions and grade requirements on the subject pages of the College Class Curriculum Document.*
