

York and district Branch of the Geographical Association

Programme of events 2011-12

Tuesday 13th September 7.15 pm

Professor Lucy Carpenter, Department of Chemistry, York University

Climate, atmospheric chemistry and ocean interactions

Wednesday 23rd November 7.15pm - this will be a joint RGS event

Dr Adrian Leftwich, Department of Politics, York University

No development without security and no security without development

Tuesday 24th January 7.15pm

Professor David Petley, Director of the Institute of Hazard, Risk and Resilience, University of Durham

Earthquakes in mountain areas, experiences from Taiwan, Pakistan and China

Thursday 9th February 7.15pm – this will be a joint RGS event

Professor Bill Mc Guire Director of the Benfield Hazard Research at UCL

Waking the Giant; looking at how climate change and geological hazards are linked

Friday 9th December 1.30 – 4.00pm

John Smith, Principal Examiner for AQA

AQA GEOG4B Examination preparation workshop

- this will be an opportunity for Sixth Form students to get a real handle on the Geographical Issues Evaluation paper

Monday March 12th 1.30-4.00

Sixth Form Conference

Dr Tom Bramald, Department of Geomatics, University of Newcastle upon Tyne

'GIS, Geomatics and Hazard Surveying'